Seven Hundred Miles in a Small Boat.
We have been handed the following for publication:

The expedition taken on the 11th inst. by the steamer Esequibo, by the kindness of the Directors of the Royal Mail Company, safely arrived at Southampton on Tuesday. The party consisted of Captain Harvey, R.N., in command; Captain Whalley Nicholson, and four seamen. They were dropped over in a 28ft. Berth-on boat, 400 miles west of the Land's End at 10 A.M. on the 14th inst., with a very strong south-west wind and tremendous sea on. They arrived at Scilly on the 19th inst., notwithstanding a violent gale of wind.
They left Scilly at 4 P.M. on the 20th and reached the Needles at 3-15 on 22nd inst. The weather throughout was very stormy, and the sun was only once seen. This run for a small boat is considered remarkable, the speed sometimes exceeding ten knots an hour. One of the crew, who were all volunteers, was the boatswain from the ill-fated Teuton.
—Belfast News Letter.

American women are the best dancers in the world. The Oriental races and the Spanish women cannot be said to dance—they merely go through a series of voluptuous motions and slow steps, with perfect abandon. The Germans are correct and easy, but not graceful; the English put too much struggle into it, the French are inclined to angularity; but the American woman is by nature supple and graceful, learns with facility, and has the vitality that takes the place of strength.
